

Publishing on the Web

SESSION OVERVIEW

Participants will explore the use of the Internet for school-based Web sites and other kinds of Web-publishing projects. They will see how Web-based information can be used by teachers in the classroom, by administrators, and even to keep in touch with parents and community members.

Why do it?

1. Administrative Uses
2. Instructional Uses

Getting Started:

1. What kind of page do I want to make, and what will it contain?
2. What managerial issues will I confront?
3. What do I want the Web page to look like?

Web Publishing Basics

1. Terminology
2. Web page Editors

Web Publishing Sites:

- Organize web sites for use in lessons –
<http://trackstar.4teachers.org/trackstar/index.jsp>
- Gather internet links and design an activity (Free template!) -
<http://www.kn.pacbell.com/wired/fil/intro.html>
- A beginner's guide to HTML -
<http://archive.ncsa.uiuc.edu/General/Internet/WWW/HTMLPrimer.html>
- FTP Client Software for publishing –
<http://k12science.ati.stevens-tech.edu/>