

Raising a Community of Readers

Join us for “Raising a Community of Readers,” a town hall meeting hosted by Emmy award winning journalist, Tanji Patton, designed to raise awareness of the importance of early childhood literacy in our community and to highlight local programs and services that are available to families right now. A panel of early childhood specialists, policy-makers, parents, teachers, and community leaders will discuss the issues and answer questions from the audience. The event will be filmed for broadcast on KLRN-TV during the Week of the Young Child. Seating is limited. Call 210.270.9000 EXT 2247 to reserve a space. Refreshments will be served.

★ Together—we can make a difference in helping young children develop those skills they need to learn to read—and love to read!

Did you know?

Reading even 5 or 10 minutes a day to young children helps them get ready to read on their own.
